WARNING: If you intend to practice the teachings of this sample, you must perform the Initiation Ritual, to have the protection of the Ancient Vampires of the Lineage, or you may attract spiritual parasites that will drain every last drop of your vitality, and of all the people around you.

Another risk of practicing these teachings without the Initiation Ritual is that you may awaken the wrath of the ancients of this Lineage, for practicing the Art of Vampirism that they developed without having the authority given by Initiation. Believe me, you do not want to have thousands of powerful undead Vampires devouring your soul, and this will apply to everyone around you.

So perform the Initiation Ritual, and avoid all these tragedies in your life.

Introduction

Vampirism is not a myth, it is a practice of the most evolved beings and of some involuted beings.

The most evolved beings, the conscious Vampires, are the pinnacle of evolution and the new humanity.

Humanity is the name given to the most evolved beings of a given era.

In the Proterozoic Period, for example, humanity was the most evolved microorganisms on the planet at that time. Just as in the Cretaceous Period, the human Monad was with the dinosaurs.

Homo Sapiens held the human Monad until the Bronze Age, when it was the most evolved species on the planet.

After the Bronze Age, the first Homo Terribilis were already walking the earth, and since then they have held the human Monad, and are true humanity.

Homo Terribilis, popularly known as Vampires, have been guiding the steps of the world's population for millennia, and they are singers, politicians, scientists, priests, writers like me, and they always occupy a position of leadership, prominence and visibility in some way.

Advances in medicine and the development of vaccines were only achieved to keep the herd healthy, and to guarantee a quality and almost infinite supply of food, to keep humanity, the Homo Terribilis, strong, at the top of the food chain and always at the top of the world.

Your Master of the Art of Vampirism automatically becomes your sire when you die as prey, losing your human form, and are reborn as a predator, taking your rightful place above the herd of people.

You, as my Vampire children, members of my bloodline, the Infernal Vampire bloodline, will be my children through the unbreakable bonds of predatory knowledge transmitted and assimilated. But just as the Gods I worship make me free, I also make you masters of your own choices, so that the bloodline bonds created by this book will not prevent you from following the path you desire, be it the Left Hand Path or the Right Hand Path.

The Predatory Art of Infernal Vampirism is a technical science, and not something dogmatic and linked to the Magical and spiritual path that I follow.

Anyone can learn and practice the teachings in this book, the only requirement is the willingness to die and be reborn.

Initiation Ritual

This Ritual will give the adept authority to enter into the mysteries of Infernal Bloodline Vampirism.

It is essential and prudent to do so, and under no circumstances proceed with the learning of this book without first performing this Initiation Ritual.

The ancient Vampire founders of this Lineage will open the doors of understanding and release the veiled secrets of the practice of the Predatory Art of Infernal Vampirism to those adepts who are sincere and refer to the ancients through this Ritual.

This Ritual consists of offering your blood as an offering to the ancient Vampiric elders and thus being able to enter the gates of true and relentless Vampirism, as a new being of pure power.

The invocations made in this Ritual were written in a mother tongue that sometimes sounds like Latin, Norse, or even Phoenician. This is the language of the first of our Lineage, those who can allow or deny your entry into this Vampiric Lineage that stretches back to the dawn of time.

Be honest with the ancient Vampiric Masters who are about to welcome you, and approach them in the least risky way possible through this Ritual.

Should you decide to do otherwise, the risk is entirely yours, and you will be alone, in addition to being considered a perjurer by our entire Lineage. Perjurers are punished relentlessly until the third generation.

But if you decide to do everything right, you will find a family that will share with you the glory of centuries of unbroken generations of powerful Vampires. Vampires who continue to guide their sons and daughters, the Lords of the Dark Face who rule the astral plane.

- Recite the initiation term committing to drain the blood (allegorically) of every homo sapien to which you have access and opportunity to vampirize, bringing glory and power to your Vampiric Lineage.

You will use a needle or something suitable to pierce the skin, and use the blade of the dagger to take the blood from the chest to the chalice. The pentagram is originally drawn with charcoal, but since you need to lie on it, you can use something more durable to draw the floor, like black crayon for example.

At the end of the ritual, you will lie down on the pentagram, and you can even sleep if you wish. Some people feel tired at the end of this ritual and sleep inside the circle and on the pentagram to wake up refreshed.

If you wish to bring something to cover the floor or even a mattress that fits inside the circle, you can do so. But remember that the lines of the pentagram and the circle should not be erased.

After waking up and the candles are extinguished, leave everything set up, and later, the following night if possible, put away the dagger and the chalice and do not use them unless you are recommended to use them, and this may happen in Vampiric Rituals that I may teach in the future.

The rest of the materials should be disposed of in a flower garden or on a beautiful lawn.

The Ritual mentions Azazel, Lilith, Moloch and Baal who are Gods linked to Vampirism to a greater or lesser degree. These Gods were incorporated either because this ceremony originated in that region of the Middle East, or because at some point in history it passed through that region and was adapted, thus being older than the Canaanite proto-civilizations.

From that moment on, you are initiated into the Lineage of the Infernal Vampires and will have the portals of this knowledge open to you without deprivation, in addition to having the protection of the Lineage for most problems and threats.

Begin your learning and your transformation, because your mind has already begun to change from this Ritual, and the process of losing the human form has already begun. Embrace the predator within you.

In-Person Vampirism

Devolved Vampires are most often practitioners of some type of unconscious, present-day Vampirism.

We are the apex of the new race, that is why we are awakened and practice Vampirism consciously.

There are some very specific techniques for this type of Vampirism, but these techniques alone are far from being everything that Vampirism can offer, but it will be up to you to master all these techniques of in-person Vampirism and seek new knowledge in order to perfect the predator that you are becoming.

By eye contact

Eye contact vampirism is practiced by focusing one's vision on the prey and draining its energy through that channel.

- Be relaxed and calm.
- Find prey that appeals to you.
- Focus your eyes on some part of the prey's body, preferably where there is no clothing covering it.
- Try not to blink, the less you blink, the stronger the connection and the faster you will drain your prey.
- Keep your eyes on the prey and all your focus on it.
- Once the connection is formed, you will feel a change in pressure in your body, or you will feel a presence within you, or both.

- Exhale all the air from your lungs.
- Inhale slowly through your mouth, or through your nose, imagine the prey's energy being pulled through your breath, leaving the prey's body as a blood-red mist, and filling your lungs.

- When you reach maximum lung capacity, hold the energy for a few moments so that it falls into your system.
- Exhale all the air from your lungs.
- Inhale slowly, drawing the red mist in through your inhalation, and filling your lungs.
- Hold your breath full of energy.
- Exhale until your lungs are empty.
- Repeat the process as many times as you want.
- The entire process is done subtly and in just a few seconds, repeating everything tirelessly and filling yourself with vital energy.
- The Vampire is a subtle predator, your prey cannot realize that you are doing something to them, or you will lose the hunt.

ATTENTION: the minimum amount of vital energy required to begin to see any effect is the amount that can be drained in 10 minutes.

And if you are going to use the practice of Vampirism as an attack method, you need to drain the target of the attack for at least 10 minutes, and the target will start to feel some fatigue.

To make someone sick or kill them through energy depletion, you need to gain mastery so that the drained flow becomes increasingly greater, and the drainage practice needs to be regular and daily.
